

Eileen Trenkmann works as an Advisor on Innovation Promotion in MSMEs & Start-up Incubation in the Private Sector Development unit of GIZ. She is leading a project on Corporate Engagement in Start-up Incubation. She has a Bachelor in Business Administration, Political Science and Public Administration and graduated as a Master of Science in Marketing from Berlin Institute of Technology. Prior to her current profile she has been working as a research assistant for Fraunhofer, one of the leading research institutes in Europe on applied science, on topics such as Knowledge Management, Cluster Development and Innovation. She has a hands on experience in projects at various levels of private sector development in Europe and Asia. She has gained substantial international and intercultural experiences during her assignments in Turkey, the Palestinian Territories and India.